From Dean Burke

May I remind you that the mere scheduling of the dates of activities for the calendar year does not comprise official scheduling of any College event. We have a special form for you to fill out before a social event is officially scheduled and before any publicity is given to the press. If the chairman that you appoint for a social function will come to my office about ten days in advance of the function, I will give him one of the Social Activities Permit forms. This then may be filled out according to the regulations printed at the bottom of the form and should be returned to my office one week in advance of the date of the party. When this is completed, publicity for the function may be released. If you wish your publicity to start earlier than this, you may put your Social Permit through earlier. The handling of the permit is the responsibility of the chairman of the social function.

Bob Bush Elected Duke of Knights

At the first meeting of the year, the Golden Plume chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights, held Wednesday noon, Bob Bush was elected as Duke of the organization.

At the first meeting of the year, held Wednesday noon, the Golden Plume chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights, elected Bob Bush as duke of the organization. Sherm Coffin was chosen as scribe.

The I. K. s an International fraternity of college men dedicated to promote the welfare of the college by service.

"Twenty men will be elected into the club in the near future" stated the newly elected Duke. One of the main functions of the club is to take tickets at the athletic meets held in Boise.

Students Tryout For Yell Leaders

Try outs for yell leaders were held yesterday at the first pep assembly of the year at which the Jive Trio made its first Junior College appearance for the year.

Students trying out for the yell leader posts were Mary Helen Rounds, Maxine Cummings, Norma Burnham, Sally McMullen, Grant Dean, Bob Bush, and Jackie Morris. Two boys and two girls will be elected from this group the first of next week.

Alpha Mu Omega Select "Jr. Miss"

"Junior Miss" has been chosen as the initial production of the drama club, Alpha Mu Omega, stated Miss Judy Rose, president. This play is probably known to the majority of the students, having been produced on Broadway, as well as having been made into a very successful movie.

Tryouts for parts had started yesterday, and will continue on until Tuesday. Rehearsals will begin on Wednesday, October 17.

Dramatic Club officers are Judy Rose, president; Lois Perkins, vice-president; and Bill Onweiler, secretary-treasurer.

SOCIETY EDITOR SPEAKS AT MEET

Miss Shirley West, former Boise Junior College student and now society editor of the Statesman newspaper, was guest speaker at the weekly Press Club meeting last Wednesday. Miss West discussed the topic of journalism as a career.

At the regular business meeting President Bill Onweiler appointed publicity and entertainment chairmen for the term who in turn choose their committees. The publicity committee consists of Bill Mathisen, chairman, Dolores Hochstrasser, and Betty Jean Feeney. The entertainment committee includes Bob Bush, chairman, Merle Collins, and Jim Thompson. This committee will have the responsibility of planning all programs for the weekly meetings.

Freshman Girls Organize B-Cubes

Freshmen girls met last week and elected officers for the coming year. Officers elected were Claire-laine Swanholm, president; Patsy Bryant, vice-president; Shirley Glimp, secretary; and Joyce Currie, treasurer.

"B" Cubes is a freshmen girls' pep club and their object is to promote school spirit and support all school activities.

LYCEUM TICKETS NOW BEING SOLD

Tickets for the Lyceum are now on sale at the general office. A ticket covering the whole series will be $1.00. There will be at least four numbers presented in the series.

The townpeople are being sold tickets for $3.60 through the medium of students who are canvassing the town. Students are given a first chance to get the tickets.

Dean Mathews and Mr. J. L. Strachen, co-chairmen of the Lyceum program, urge you to get your ticket at once, as you will be getting quite a bargain, and there at the Mexican Military Academy before his death.

Watch the bulletin board for the closing date of the sales.

GRIFFIN, MARTINDALE ZUPAN TAKE OTHER POSTS IN CLOSE RACE

Fred Reich, one of B. J. C.'s returned veterans, won the post of Student Body President, in Wednesday's elections, as he edged out Sherm Coffin, popular athlete.

Fred Griffin received the Vice Presidency over Mary McLeod. Loretta Martindale, was re-elected to secretary after she was unable to complete her last years term because of illness. Catherine Zupan, took the office of Treasurer over Ruth Sandmeyer.

Reich was a former student of B. J. C. in 1941-1942, and was in the Combat Engineers, as a Lieutenant. He served overseas. Reich is also an Eagle scout. He attended High school in Wausaw, Wisconsin.

Griffin is a Boise High School graduate, he is president of the Honorary Dramatic society, and was the treasurer of the Boise High School student body.

Miss Zupan, is president of the Boise Junior College Red Cross chapter and is also Vice President, Treasurer of the Valkyries. In the majority of the offices the votes were very close.

College Adds 5 To Faculty

This fall Boise Junior College has added five new names to its faculty list, with two of them being former students of this college.

Miss Adella Christensen, already nicknamed "Cris" by her students, is a 1945 graduate of the Brigham Young University in Salt Lake. Miss Christensen is the women's physical education instructor as well as the instructor in health education classes.

Greta Linstedt, a graduate of the University of Oregon in 1945, is a former Boise Junior College student. Miss Linstedt now teaches nurses' chemistry. She is also a first year German teacher as well as assistant in the zoology laboratory.

Another former student of this college is John Edlefsen, instructor in sociology and history. Mr. Edlefsen received his degree at the University of Idaho. Previous to joining the junior college teaching staff, he worked as shift supervisor of Remington Arms in Denver, Colorado.

Margery Kallenberger is a 1945 graduate of the University of Kansas. Aside from being assistant librarian, Miss Kallenberger is an instructor in art.

Carl Warner, former superintendent at King Hill, Idaho, is another new member of the faculty staff. Mr. Warner is an instructor in physics and math and is also the men's physical education instructor. He graduated from the University of Idaho.

SOMETHING WORTH THINKING ABOUT

An issue of national significance which no one can disregard is the ever-mounting number of strikes which are tying up the whole economical system. Every one is effected by them, from the common housewife to the great industrial magnates.

As in every issue, big or little, there are pro's and con's. Those who are in with labor say that the strikes are justified. Labor, they claim has a just cause, in demanding war time wages. They need the money, as the cost of living is still high.

Recently some one was heard to remark that the whole situation would be solved to everyone's satisfaction if prices could be lowered to suit the average pocketbook. He also pointed out that if wages were raised and prices raised accordingly, inflation is inevitable, and further on looms another depression. How about that, do you think anything can be done about lowering of prices?

HOW ABOUT A LITTLE HELP?

Students, this newspaper is for your enjoyment and convenience. What is written in it, is by the students of this school. Any contributions, such as editorials, jokes, letter-to-the editor or any other written work will be greatly appreciated, and will be published if the signature of the writer is on the article.

The majority of the editorials on this page are written by the students and if here is any comment on them, or if you wish to take a stand on anything that is written, either see the editor or the advisor, or just drop your comments in the box that is on "The Roundup" door.

Now lets have some contributions!

Gazing Into The 8-Ball

The only answer I ever get, in trying to get material for this column is "I know a lot of stuff but it isn't printable". Which brings up the question "How does the B. J. C. student spend his leisure time?" I'll never know, I guess.

Things are getting complicated for Thelma Stuart and Barbara Fraser due to the sudden return of some old friends. Its gotta be this or that...

The lounge is crowded these days with baseball enthusiasts leaning over the radio... Zane Scott was trying to decide whether to go to class or stay and plead with the Cubs to save him from financial ruin...

Speaking of being absent minded, (were we speaking of being absent minded?) Sammy Dunford and Monte Brooks sat through the press club meeting, ate lunch, voted, and then said they didn't know it was a meeting...

Now that we all are in the swing in things one little group of students have organized a Good Friday Club... Floyd Brown has found a successful way of sleeping in those hard class room chairs... and Merle Collins is said to be having dreams about trumping her partner's ace.

Lois Perkins and Dorothy Humphrey are being very careful who they ride to town with since... what did happen girls???

We knew Frank Hannifin was in town when we saw Norma Burnham pour cream on her hamburger and put ketchup in her coffee.

Last but not least is the question of the week... is Kenny Chilton engaged... or isn't he???

Orchids and Onions

Orchids to Bob Bush who raises the flag on the campus all by himself day after day, and to Howard Waterman for lowering it daily.

Onions to those people who persist in throwing cigarette butts on the front steps of the Administration Building. It is rumored that they will soon be supplied with shovels and put to work clearing a path to the front door.

Orchids to those who have had perfect attendance so far.

Onions to those who eat in the south lounge.

Orchids to Sally Belt, for no particular reason at all, she just loves orchids and has never had one.

Tramping Through Vogue

by Mac

Seems as if it really didn't take the Big Sister Tea to bring out everyone's best clothes. Cause if that were true, there must have been more Tea's the last few days or maybe my levis just aren't what they're supposed to be.

If Lou Grider tells you a little bird told her something—you can be sure its the tiny wooden one she carries perched atop her shoulder now and then.

And during those few "hot daze" last week, it certainly looked like the beginning of spring with all the print dresses and wedges.

Our new A. W. president, Betty Jean Feeney got plenty of votes with her eye-catching two-tone blue print. And way up on third floor in the Art room, Marilyn Rutten in a scrumptious fuschia suit and Sally McMullen in an adorable print with a huge bow tie front, were bravely, but distantly learning to mix paints. Rushing over to the Union for a short coke, I saw Norene Johnson trudging lightly (?) in green wooden soled rupees that matched her cap sleeved seer-sucker print.

Speaking of shoes, did you notice Bethel Holman's green and white polka dot wedgies... AND her dress was also green and white polka dot...! So I leave you with spots in front of my eyes.

"No, What good is it?"

B.J.C. Minute Maids Chosen for 1945-46

Boise Junior College Minute Maids have been announced for the coming year according to Jean Barber, captain, and Mrs. Ada Burke, faculty adviser to the Pauline Revere, Jr., group.

Regular minute maids, who will go to Boise theaters on Saturday nights are: Jean Barber, Maxine Gross, Lois Willy, Betty Jo Jackson, Isabel Jones, Eileen Brewster, Barbara Lewis, Mary Reidel, Francis Gibbons, Elvira Chaney, Yvonne Cleverly, and Ruth Sandmeyer.

Substitute members, who will attend all assemblies, include Donna Lee Trowbridge, Ellen Iverson, Doris Marie Craven, Judy Rose, Mary Helen Rounds, Maxine Cummings, Joan Brown, Doris Foster, Marie McPherson, Virginia Kohout, Jean Anderson, and Patty Lee Gibson.

Mrs. Belle Fisher Supervises Union

Mrs. Belle Fisher is the new supervisor of the student Union this year. For the past 2 years, prior to her coming here, Mrs. Fisher has been supervising the electric stockroom on 47 of the Flat Top Carriers in the navy.

Service at the Union has been much improved over that of last year. A major improvement is the addition of steam tables which keep the food warm, thereby enabling latecomers to enjoy a hot meal.

The lunches this year are being served from 11:30. This helps to keep the Union from being too congested at 12:00. This is also an improvement of service over last year.

About The Campus

Unacquainted as your reporter is with the armorous part of this college, nevertheless, a few things have been called to his attention.

For instance, (evidence that high school romances do sometimes endure) is Jean Bell and Bob Copeland—a carryover from high school.

And then there's Pauline Davis who takes a certain letter from her notebook every few minutes and sighs, "Excuse me kids, but I haven't read this for two hours!"

Your reporter was strolling serenely along the hall when a cute little coed in a very big hurry bumped into him. She apologized breathlessly—but you understand. I'm in a hurry to get to Sociology. "Why," your reporter asked bluntly. "Paul Sabatine is in that class," she said, and wasted no more time with words.

And who was that Lt. we saw you with at the El Rancho Saturday night, Betty Smith?

Did you notice the people walking around staring at the ground and making funny motions the other day? They were catching grass-hoppers for Zoology—the only one that caught a frog was Jimmy Barnes.

Edna Nannuy says next time she'll play dumb. There was a dream of a G. I. teaching her the rudiments of pinochle, at the Recreation Hall at Gowen. But she knew too much about it—so he moved on to help another gal.

Which proves you can know too much. (Or does it?) Anyway, this is all your reporter knows right now—so—so long.

He: "Since I met you I can't eat, I can't sleep, I can't eat, I can't drink."

She, shyly: "Why?"

He: "I'm broke."

FIVE MEXICANS ENTERTAIN CLUB

Five Mexicans from the Caldwell labor camp were guests of the Spanish Club, Sunday, October 7. The boys entertained the club with some Spanish songs. Four of the boys sang while two played guitars.

Two of the Mexican boys are students at the University of Mexico. Their father was an instructor at the Mexican Military Academy before his death.

The boys declared themselves very happy to see Boise Junior College, and delighted to meet some of its students.

Movies of Cuzco, Peru, site of the famous Inca ruins, were shown to the club.

RED CROSS WORKERS BEGIN ENTERTAINMENT

Red Cross work has already begun at Boise Junior College. This unit, under the direction of Mrs. Roland Power, sends a group of girls to the Gowen Field hospital each Thursday evening to provide entertainment for convalescent service men. Also programs are being planned for the purpose of providing additional entertainment when called for.

Officers of this unit are Catherine Zupan, president; Kathryn Nordquist, secretary; and Helen Jeker, treasurer.

VALKYRIES WILL SELL STATIONERY

At the last meeting of the Valkyries, the plan was presented, by Isabel Jones for the printing of stationery, with a sketch of the Administration Building at the top of each sheet of paper.

The design for the paper was made by Maxine Gross, and the stationery will be printed in blue ink. Both the sheets and envelopes will be of Air Mail weight.

The price for a box of this writing paper has not been established, as yet, but it will be sold at the Valkyries' counter in the Student Union.

BRONCS ROUND INTO SHAPE AS GRID GAMES SCHEDULED

Since last week the B. J. C. Broncs have added two more football games for this year's edition of the Broncs.

These games include two with the Marines of Pocatello, one there and one here, and two with the College of Idaho.

So far, the B. J. C. team is untested. Their first trial came yesterday when the first and second teams held their first full scrimmage, a preliminary to selecting permanent strings.

Among the 67 men attending B. J. C. this year are many good football players. Approximately 30 are out for the team. Among men who have shown up exceptionally well so far are, in the backfield: Carl Munson, "Zeke" Brown and Bruce Henderson; in the line, Vince O'Toole, W. W. Scott, Tony Ardizzone, Bill Burkhalter, Albert Day, Ted Nydegger, Ben Henslow and Chuck King.

As the first game is still two weeks off, Coach Warner has not committed himself on the team's chances of winning some games this year. But he does say that B. J. C. has a promising lot of players out, if he can get them in shape in time.

SHERM COFFIN

The above sketch by Ken LaRue is Sherm Coffin, popular athlete who was Fred Reich's only opposition in the presidential race. Coffin has been very active in athletics, having earned letters in basketball, baseball and football, he also plays tennis.

He is a sophomore and left Boise High School at the end of his junior year, taking his high school senior year and college freshman year here at B. J. C.

WOMEN AT BAT

by Kohout

Fall gym classes have gained the interest of many women on the campus and proved to them how much fun sports can really be. All activities of the year will be chosen by the girls, those interesting to the majority being given the most attention. In the line of this, a good many have asked and gotten archery as a beginning event. Arrows run wild for many hours during the day and though there have been no fatalities yet, Chris is keeping her weather eye open. We are glad to admit though, that we are getting our arrows almost in the same direction as the target, and who knows, by the end of the year we may be regular Robin Hoods, or would it be Hoodettes.

In the line of other outdoor games, which we will be able to play as long as good weather prevails, we are attempting, with some success, kick-pin baseball, soccer, and speedball. Then there are always a few of those tennis addicts who just can't wait till spring to wield their rackets. They're too ambitious for me but more power to them.

The Women's Athletic Association is also getting started in a big way. We are very glad to see so many new girls take an interest in this extra-curricular activity but we know many more would enjoy it if they would come out. Plans are being made for a fine initiation with all the trimmings late in October, and will be open to those girls who are now proving their club ability.

One of the largest activities being planned for this fall is a barn dance in early December complete with levis and corn cob pipes. Last year's event was a huge success and we hope to make another this fall.
